UPCOMING COURSE QUOTA SUBMISSION INFORMATION

Intermediate Trial Advocacy Course – 24-28 February 2025 at TJAGLCS, Charlottesville, VA.

PURPOSE: The ITAC prepares intermediate trial advocates to serve as first chair litigators in contested special victim and general crimes courts-martial. The course focuses on case analysis, trial strategy, trial advocacy, and effective use of the military rules of evidence. Special emphasis will be placed on: argument construction, witness and evidence presentation, voir dire, expert witness testimony, and courtroom technology. For additional information about the school, visit the TJAGLCS website.

Prerequisites— ITAC is intended for judge advocates who:

1. Are serving in trial or defense counsel positions;
2. Have tried a minimum of three (3) contested courts-martial;
3. Completed New Prosecutor Course, BTAC, or Defense Counsel 101 (or service equivalent).

Special Information - This course is exclusively in-person instruction at The Judge Advocate General's Legal Center & School (TJAGLCS), Charlottesville, Virginia. Remote attendance is not authorized. All attendees will be required to provide their own computer or digital device (e.g., laptop, tablet, etc.) capable of accessing JAG University (JAGU). Please ensure you are able to meet these technology requirements before registering for this course.
