Mid-Level Legalman Phase 1 – Online, 10 March – 11 April 2025

This five-week distance learning course prepares U.S. Navy Legalmen (LN) for mid-level leadership positions by providing advanced substantive legal training and professional development. This on-demand course is delivered online, administered through Blackboard, and requires approximately 4-6 hours of individual effort per week. The course focuses on increasing the skills and professional efficiency of military paralegals through a combination of self-paced study, written assignments, online discussion participation, and a final examination.

Target Audience — Completion is required for all LN1s, any LN2s with independent-duty LN orders, and certain command services LN billets at CO's discretion. LNs must have graduated LN "A" School at least two years prior to the start of the course to be considered for Mid-Level Phase I. LN PQS must be completed in order to enroll. Please include proof of LN PQS completion along with your Quota Submission Form.
