Appellant

No. 201900296 (f rev)

---

Decided: 15 January 2025

Appeal from the United States Navy-Marine Corps Trial Judiciary

Military Judges:
Ryan Stormer (arraignment and motions)
Andrea K. Lockhart (motions and trial)

Sentence adjudged 21 July 2023 by a general court-martial tried at Naval Station San Diego, California, consisting of a military judge sitting alone. Sentence in the Entry of Judgment: reduction to E-1, confinement for 6 years, and a dishonorable discharge.<sup>1</sup>

For Appellant:
Lieutenant Raymond E. Bilter, JAGC, USN

---

<sup>1</sup> Appellant was credited with having served 1,698 days of pretrial confinement.

This opinion does not serve as binding precedent under NMCCA Rule of Appellate Procedure 30.2(a).

PER CURIAM:

This case is before us a third time.

In 2019, a general court-martial consisting of members with enlisted representation convicted Appellant, contrary to his pleas, of attempted rape of a child, rape of a child, and sexual abuse of a child, in violation of Articles 80 and 120b, Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ).<sup>2</sup> In April 2021, this Court reversed Appellant's convictions and authorized a retrial owing to implied bias of one of the members.<sup>3</sup>

In July 2021, the convening authority re-referred the same charges and specifications against Appellant for retrial by general court-martial. During the retrial, the military judge excluded Appellant's testimony from his first trial. The Government appealed that ruling to this Court. We granted the Government's appeal, vacated the military judge's ruling, and remanded for further proceedings not inconsistent with our opinion.<sup>4</sup> The convening authority subsequently referred an additional charge of sexual abuse of a child against Appellant. The case proceeded to trial and, in July 2023, a general court-martial consisting of a military judge sitting alone convicted Appellant, consistent with his pleas, of two specifications of sexual abuse of a child, in violation of Article 120b, UCMJ.<sup>5</sup>

The case is again before us for appellate review. After careful consideration of the record, submitted without assignment of error, we have determined that the findings and sentence are correct in law and fact and that no error materially prejudicial to Appellant's substantial rights occurred.<sup>6</sup>

Opinion of the Court

However, contrary to the requirements of Rule for Courts-Martial (R.C.M.) 1111(b)(2)(A)-(B), the Entry of Judgment (EOJ) does not specify the individually segmented terms of confinement adjudged for each of Appellant's two convictions, nor does the EOJ reflect that the terms of confinement are to run concurrently. Although we find no prejudice, Appellant is entitled to have court-martial records that correctly reflect the content of his proceeding.<sup>7</sup> In accordance with R.C.M. 1111(c)(2), we modify the EOJ and direct that it be included in the record.

The findings and sentence are AFFIRMED.
